1. Any reference in these Rules to an address for service within or outside the Federal Republic of Nigeria, means a physical, postal, or electronic mail address, a GSM telephone number or any other available mode of communication where notices, summonses, warrants, proceedings and other documents, etc may be left, sent, posted or transmitted if not required to be served personally.

Definition of address for service.

2.—(1) Every Notice of Appeal shall be served on the Respondent(s) personally or on the Legal Practitioner who represented him at the Court below or by electronic mail or any other electronic means.

Service of notice of appeal.

(2) Save as may be otherwise provided in these Rules or in any other written law, no notice of process, document or other written communication in proceedings in the original or appellate jurisdiction of the Court, need be personally served; except:

(a) in proceedings in the original jurisdiction of the Court, the writ of summons or other documents issued by the Court for the institution of the proceedings; and

(b) in proceedings in the appellate jurisdiction of the Court, the Notice of Appeal;

Provided that if the Court is satisfied that the Notice of Appeal has in fact been served in the manner prescribed by sub-rules (1) and (3) of this Rule, or communicated to the Respondent, no objection to the hearing of the appeal shall lie on the ground only that the Notice of Appeal was not served personally.

(3) Where any document is required by these Rules to be served personally, it shall be sufficiently served if it is served in the manner prescribed by law for the personal service of a writ of summons issued by the Federal High Court and if it appears to the Court that for any reason personal service cannot be conveniently effected, the Court shall have the same power as the Federal High Court to direct that service be effected in some other way.

3. Where a Legal Practitioner has been served with a Notice of Appeal or any other process, and the Legal Practitioner has ceased to be instructed by the party for the purpose of the proceedings concerned, it shall be the duty of the Legal Practitioner to inform the Registrar within seven (7) days after service that he is not or no longer authorised to accept service on behalf of such person and if he omits to do so he shall be ordered to pay any costs occasioned thereby. In addition, the omission may be treated as an act of professional misconduct.

Duty of Legal Practitioner where he no longer acts for parties.

4.—(1) The Registry of the Court below or the Appellant shall, after the Notice of Appeal has been filed, cause to be served a certified true copy thereof upon each of the parties mentioned in the Notice of Appeal, but it shall not be necessary to serve any party not directly affected:

Service of notice on parties mentioned.

Provided that the Court may suo motu or on the application of any person claiming to be affected, direct Notice to be served on all or any party to the action or other proceeding or upon any person not a party and in the meantime may adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as may be just and make such Order(s) as might have been made if the persons served with Notice had been originally parties to the appeal.

Notice of appeal and address for service.

(2) Where in any proceeding in the Court below, a party has given a physical or electronic address for service, notice of any application preparatory or incidental to any appeal may be served in like manner as a Notice of Appeal under Rules 2 and 3 of this Order.

Mode of service.

5. Where under these Rules, any person has given an address for service, inclusive of an electronic mail address, any notice or other process shall be sufficiently served upon him if—

(a) left at that address, or

(b) sent by registered post to that address and in which case if the date of service by post is material, the relevant provision(s) of the Interpretation Act shall apply, or

(c) transmitted by electronic means to the electronic mail address or telephone number or any other mode of electronic communication.

Service of notice of appeal.

6.—(1) Where a Notice of Appeal is served on the Respondent by the Bailiff of the Court below, the Bailiff shall duly file an affidavit of such service at the Registry of the Court below.

Service of process.

(2) Where a process or document(s) is served on a party by the Bailiff of the Court, the Bailiff shall duly file an affidavit of service at the Registry of the Court:

Service by party.

Provided that if a party undertakes to effect personal service of a process other than a Notice of Appeal, the party undertaking service shall file an affidavit of such service at the Registry of the Court.

Endorsement of address for service.

7. Where under these Rules, any notice or other process is required to have an address for service endorsed on it, it shall not be accepted for filing by the Registry of the Court below or the Registry of the Court, or where accepted, it shall not be deemed to have been properly filed in so far as such address has not been endorsed on it.

Change of address and notification of change

8. Any party to an appeal or intended appeal may change his address for service at any time, by filing and serving on the Court and all other parties to the appeal or intended appeal, a notice of such change.

Respondent(s) notices of address for service.

9.—(1) Every person who by virtue of service on him of a Notice of Appeal becomes a Respondent to any appeal or intended appeal shall within fourteen (14) days after service on him of the Notice of Appeal file with the Registrar of the Court below notice of a full and sufficient address for service in such number of copies as the said Registrar shall require and the Registrar of the Court below shall forthwith send a copy of the notice of address to the Registrar and shall cause a copy thereof to be served on the Appellant. Where Record has been transmitted, such notice shall be filed in the Court.

(2) Such notice may be signed by the Respondent or his Legal Practitioner. The electronic signature of the Respondent or his Legal Practitioner shall suffice for the electronic version of the notice.

(3) If any Respondent fails or omits to file such notice of address for service, then delivery of any document or proceeding at the address shown in the Notice of Appeal shall be deemed to be good and proper service on him.

10.—(1) Where the President, Vice President, a State Governor, a Deputy Governor of a State, Minister or Commissioner, or the Attorney-General, or Director of Public Prosecutions, or any other public officer of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or of a State is a party ex-officio in any proceedings in the Court, whether civil or criminal, any notice or other document may be served on him by leaving it at or by sending it by registered post or electronically or by serving it in the open office/chambers of the Attorney-General of the Federation or of the State concerned, as the case may be; and service in this manner shall be as effective as if it were personal service.

Service on

(2) The mode of service in sub-rule (1) of this Rule shall be deemed to be good and sufficient service on the state as a Respondent in a criminal appeal other than an appeal in a private prosecution.

11.—(1) Where any person who is out of the jurisdiction of the Court is a necessary or proper party to an appeal before the Court and it is necessary to serve him with the Notice of Appeal or other documents relating to the appeal, the Court may upon an application ex-parte for leave, allow service of the Notice of Appeal or such other document out of the jurisdiction of the Court.

Service
jurisdiction.

(2) Every application for leave to serve a Notice of Appeal or other document on a person who is out of the jurisdiction of the Court shall be supported by an affidavit showing in what place or country such a person is or may be found and the grounds upon which the application is made.

(3) Any order granting leave to effect service out of the jurisdiction of the Court shall prescribe the mode of service and the Court may receive an affidavit or statutory declaration of such service having been effected as prima facie evidence of such service thereof.

12. Except as otherwise stated in this Order, or the context so implies, this Order shall apply to all matters whether civil or criminal. References to Appellant and Respondent may be adjusted to be references to Applicant, Plaintiff or Defendant, as the case may be.

Application of Order 3.

ORDER 4 — APPLICATIONS

- Form of application.

8. Where an application has been refused by the Court below, an application for a similar purpose may be made to the Court within twenty-one (21) days after the date of the refusal.

9. Wherever under the Rules an application may be made either to the Court below or to the Court it shall not be made in the first instance to the Court except where there are exceptional circumstances which make it impossible or impracticable to apply to the Court below.

Application where first made.

10. Where, in an appeal to the Court from the Court below, the Court below has affirmed the findings of fact of the Court of first instance, any application to the Court in pursuance of its jurisdiction under section 233(3) of the Constitution for leave to appeal shall be granted only in exceptional circumstances.

Appeal from concurrent findings.

11. Where in any proceedings or at any stage of the hearing of any cause or matter, a question arises concerning the validity or constitutionality of any enactment or other law, the Court may, if it considers that it is necessary and expedient so to do, invite the Attorney-General of the Federation, the Attorney-General of the appropriate State or any other Legal Practitioner to attend the hearing of such cause or matter for the purpose of presenting arguments on such issues of validity or constitutionality.

Invitation of amici curiae.

12.—(1) Without prejudice to the powers of the Court to hear oral arguments, an application may be considered and determined by the Court in chambers.

Notice of non-contention.

Form 2.

(2) The Respondent shall file a notice of non-contention within fourteen (14) days of service of the application on him where he does not intend to contest the application.

13.—(1) A Respondent intending to rely upon a preliminary objection at the hearing of the appeal shall give the Appellant not less than five (5) clear days' notice thereof before the hearing, setting out the grounds of objection, and shall file such notice with eleven (11) physical copies and an electronic copy thereof with the Registry within the same time. The preliminary objection shall be argued in the Respondent's brief of argument.

Filing of preliminary objection.

Form 3.

Provided that where briefs have already been filed, a written address shall be filed with the notice of objection.

(2) Where the Respondent fails to comply with this Rule, the Court may refuse to entertain the objection or may adjourn the hearing thereof at the cost of the Respondent or may make such other order(s) as it deems appropriate.

Application to strike out, etc.

14. An application to strike out or set aside for non-compliance with these Rules, or for any other irregularity arising from the rules of practice and procedure in this Court, any proceedings or any step taken in any proceedings or any document, judgment or order therein shall only be entertained by the Court if it is made within a reasonable time and before the party applying has taken any fresh step after becoming aware of the irregularity.

No application for extension of time.

15.—(1) The time provided by the Rules for filing any process shall be automatically extended in the first instance for the same period. In the second instance with payment of penalty for the time the applicant is in default but not exceeding the prescribed time. Thereafter, no application for extension of time shall be entertained except in an appeal against a death sentence.

Matters exempted from objection.

(2) No objection shall be taken to the hearing of an application or an appeal on the ground that the amount fixed by the Registrar of the Court below under Order 5 Rule 1(1) of these Rules was incorrectly assessed.

Section 233(4) of the 1999 Constitution (as amended).

16. The Court may dispose of any application for leave to appeal from any decision of the Court below or any other tribunal in respect of any civil or criminal proceedings in which leave to appeal is necessary after consideration of the record of the proceedings if the Court is of the opinion that the interests of justice do not require an oral hearing of the application.

Application of Order 4.

17. Except as otherwise stated in this Order, or the context so admits, this Order shall apply to all matters whether civil or criminal.

ORDER 5 – FEES

1.– (1) Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the fees set out in the Second Schedule hereto shall be payable in respect of the matters to which they relate and shall be paid to the Registrar of the Court.

Fees generally

(2) The Chief Justice shall, from time to time, issue an amended Schedule of fees as the Chief Justice may deem appropriate.

2. No fee shall be payable in respect of any matter where such fee would be payable by the Government of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or of a State or Local Government or any Government Department or agency.

Exemption from fees for Government.

3.– (1) Any party may apply to the Court for leave to prosecute or defend an appeal as a poor person and such application shall be by notice of motion, supported by affidavit, and shall be served on the other party or parties to the proceedings. No fees shall be payable on filing any such application.

Fees in proceedings by poor persons.

(2) No party shall be permitted to proceed as a poor person unless he has satisfied the Court that he has a reasonable probability of success.

(3) A person permitted to proceed as a poor person shall not be liable to pay any of the Court fees prescribed by these Rules nor shall he be required to make any deposit or to give security for costs.

Effect of leave.

(4) Where the Court grants leave to a party under these Rules, the Chief Justice or any Justice so designated shall assign a Legal Practitioner to that party.

(5) The Court may for good cause shown, review, rescind or vary an order permitting any person to proceed as a poor person.

(6) The Court may, on account of the poverty of any party (although such party may not have been formally permitted to proceed as a poor person under this Rule) or for other sufficient reason, dispense, if it deems fit, with payment of any fees, if the circumstances of the case so require:

Provided that if such party succeeds in any appeal which results in an order for payment to him of any costs, the Court may order that such fees shall be a first charge on any money recovered or to be recovered under such order.

(7) No fee shall be payable by an Appellant in capital offences or where an Appellant is granted legal aid.

(8) Except as otherwise stated in this Order, or the context so admits, this Order shall apply to all matters whether civil or criminal.

Application of Order 5.

ORDER 6 — RECORD OF APPEAL IN CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Appeal to which this Order applies.

1.—(1) The provisions of Rules 2, 3 and 4 of this Order shall apply to appeals to the Court from final decisions of the Court below in civil and criminal cases other than decisions on appeal to that Court from interlocutory decisions of a High Court.

(2) The provisions of Rules 6 and 7 of this Order shall apply to any decision of the Court below in respect of—Certain appeals.

(a) an interlocutory decision made by it;

(b) a decision made by it on appeal from an interlocutory decision of a High Court;

(c) a decision made by it affirming or reversing an order for summary judgment; or

(d) a decision made by it in cases—

(i) where the liberty of a person or the custody of an infant is concerned,

(ii) where an injunction or the appointment of a receiver is granted or refused,

(iii) relating to or connected with the winding-up of companies,

(iv) of a decree nisi in a matrimonial cause,

(v) affecting the revenue of the Government of the Federation or of a State; and

(e) such other cases as the Court in its discretion may direct.

Preparation of the record.

Forms 4 and 5.

2.—(1) As soon as an Appellant has filed his Notice of Appeal in the Court below, the Registrar of that Court (in the case to which Rules 6 and 7 of this Order apply) shall, expeditiously prepare the record in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2) The record shall contain the following documents in the order set out—

(a) the index;

(b) a statement by the Registrar of the Court below giving brief particulars of the case and including a schedule of the fees paid in that Court;

(c) physical and electronic copies of the documents and proceedings constituting the Record of Appeal before the Court below;

(d) a physical and electronic copy of the order for leave to appeal whether made by the Court or the Court below;

(e) a physical and electronic copy of the Notice of Appeal;

(f) a physical and electronic certificate by the Registrar of the Court below certifying that the Notice of Appeal was duly served upon the Respondent;

(g) a physical and electronic certificate by the Registrar of the Court below certifying that the Appellant has duly and punctually complied with the conditions of appeal imposed upon him; and

(h) a physical and electronic certificate by the Registrar of the Court below certifying that the Appellant and the Respondent have either collected their copies of the record respectively or that they have been duly notified that such record is ready for collection.

(3) In respect of the documents and proceedings referred to in paragraphs (c) and (d) of sub-rule (2) of this rule, it shall not be necessary for the record of appeal to contain any documents which the Appellant with the consent of the Respondent considers should be excluded :

Provided that whenever such document has been included on the insistence of the Respondent, the Registrar of the Court below shall make a note to that effect.

(4) It shall not be necessary to copy the notes or minutes of the proceedings taken by every Justice on the panel of the Court below and the notes or minutes signed by the Presiding Justice shall be deemed to be the proceedings of the Court below.

(5) It shall not be necessary for copies of individual documents to be separately certified, but the Registrar of the Court below shall certify as correct each copy of the record transmitted by him in accordance with these Rules.

3.—(1) When the Appellant or his agent files his Notice of Appeal, he shall be informed of the amount assessed by the Registrar of the Court below as the cost of the preparation and transmission of the record to the Court and (in the case of civil appeals) as the amount of security for costs and the due prosecution of the appeal.

Fees for preparing the record and security for costs.

(2) The Appellant shall within a period of not more than fourteen (14) days pay the amount so assessed and deposit the amount prescribed as security for costs and the due prosecution of the appeal or in lieu thereof give security by bond with one or more sureties to the satisfaction of the Registrar :

Form 6.

Provided that —

(a) the amount of such security shall not exceed twice the costs awarded in favour of the successful party by the Court below; and

(b) no deposit or security shall be required where the deposit would be payable by the Government of the Federation or of a State, by any Government department or agency by a Local Government, or by a corporation directly established by a law enacted by the legislature of the Federation or of a State.

(3) The Appellant shall within such time as the Registrar of the Court below directs, deposit with him a sum fixed to cover the estimated expense of making up and forwarding the record of appeal calculated at the full cost of one copy for the Appellant and one-tenth cost for each of the ten (10) copies for the use of the Court.

(4) The Court may, where necessary, require security for costs or for performance of the orders to be made on appeal, in addition to the sum determined under this Rule.

(5) Twenty-one (21) days after filing a Notice of Appeal, or before the transmission of the Records of Appeal (whichever is earlier), the Appellant shall file evidence showing that all sums, by way of costs, the Appellant had been ordered to pay to the Respondent have been paid into an escrow account in a commercial bank in the name of the Chief Registrar. The Appellant shall forward the Certificate of Compliance to the Registrar of the Court below for inclusion in the Records, and if the Appellant compiles the Records himself, the Certificate of Compliance duly verified by the Registrar of the Court below shall form part of the Records; failure of which shall be deemed as non-compliance with the condition for the appeal. The Court may, in the circumstance, proceed to dismiss the appeal in chambers without hearing arguments in the appeal.

record.

4.—(1) The Registrar of the Court below shall within a period of not more than three (3) months from the date of the filing of the Notice of Appeal transmit the physical and electronic record when ready together with —

(a) a physical and electronic certificate of service of the Notice of Appeal;

(b) a physical and electronic certificate that the conditions imposed under this Order have been fulfilled;

(c) ten physical and electronic copies of the record for the use of the Justices;

(d) the docket or file of the case in the Court below and the Court of first instance containing all papers or documents filed by the parties in connection therewith, to the Registrar of the Court; and

(e) a physical and electronic certificate indicating the date of service of records on the parties.

Form 7.

(2) The Registrar of the Court below shall also cause to be served on all parties mentioned in the Notice of Appeal who have filed an address for service a notice that the record has been forwarded to the Registrar of the Court who shall in due course, enter the appeal in the cause list.

Departure
from Rules
2, 3 and 4.

5.—(1) The Court may in any case in which it considers it necessary or expedient so to do in the interest of justice, or in any case in which it makes an order for accelerated hearing of the appeal, direct a departure from Rules 2, 3 and 4 of this Order.

(2) Where a direction for such departure is made by the Court, the provisions of Rules 6 and 7 of this Order shall apply to the appeal notwithstanding the fact that it is an appeal of the type mentioned in sub-rule (2) of Rule 1 of this Order:

Provided that the Court may give further or other directions for the purpose of procuring a record for the hearing and determination of the appeal.

6. It shall not be necessary for the Registrar of the Court below to prepare a record in respect of an appeal of the type mentioned in sub-rule (2) of Rule 1 of this Order unless the Court otherwise directs, and accordingly, the record for the purpose of such appeal shall be prepared in the manner set forth in Rule 7 of this Order.

Record in certain appeals.

7.—(1) Where at the expiration of thirty (30) days after the filing of the Notice of Appeal and following notification by the Appellant, the Registrar has failed or neglected to compile and transmit the Record of Appeal in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Order, it shall become mandatory for the Appellant to compile the Record of all documents and exhibits necessary for his appeal, encrypt and transmit the Record of Appeal electronically to the Court through the official electronic mail address of the Registry of the Court, within thirty (30) days after the Registrar's failure or neglect; with ten (10) physical copies of the Record of Appeal also transmitted to the Court.

Mandatory compilation by appellant in certain appeals.

(2) The Appellant shall, in appeals to which Rule 1 sub-rule (2) of this Order applies, prepare for the use of the Justices a physical and electronic record comprising —

- (a) the index;
- (b) office copies of documents and proceedings which the Appellant considers relevant to the appeal; and
- (c) a copy of the Notice of Appeal.

(3) If the Respondent considers that the documents and proceedings filed by the Appellant are inaccurate or are not sufficient for the purposes of the appeal, he shall, within a period of seven (7) days after service on him of the record filed by the Appellant, file any further or other documents that he wishes to be part of the Record.

(4) All documents filed by either party shall be verified by the affidavit of a person who has read them and compared them with authentic or certified true copies.

(5) In the case of the documents and proceedings mentioned in Rule 7 (2) (b) and (c) of this Order, the party filing them shall lodge certified true copies thereof with the Registrar of the Court within thirty (30) days.

8.—(1) When the Registrar of the Court below has complied with the requirements of Rule 4 of this Order, he shall deliver a physical and electronic copy of the record to the parties after receiving any fees that may be due or payable under the Second Schedule to these Rules.

Distribution of record.

Application of notice and grounds of appeal.
Form 8.

(2) In respect of criminal appeals, the Registrar of the Court below shall forward a physical and electronic copy of the record to the Attorney-General or the Director of Public Prosecutions of the State from which the appeal emanates or to the Attorney-General or the Director of Public Prosecutions of the Federation as the case may require.

Production of documentary exhibits.

9.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided each party or the Registrar of the Court below shall immediately after an appeal has been entered in the Court, deliver to the Registrar of the Court all documents (being exhibits in the case which were tendered as exhibits at trial whether admitted or rejected) which are in his custody or were produced or put in by any party at the trial.

Production of non-documentary exhibits.

(2) Subject as hereinafter provided, each party to an appeal or the Registrar of the Court below, shall be prepared to produce at the hearing of the appeal, all exhibits (other than documents) which are in his custody or were produced or put in by him at the trial.

Registrar's directive where exhibits not produced.

10. In case any party finds it difficult to comply with the provisions of Rule 9 of this Order, owing to the nature of documents or exhibits, or owing to its being in possession of a third party or for any reason, he may apply to the Registrar of the Court for directions.

Directives of the registrar in respect of exhibits.

11. The Registrar of the Court below may, either on his own motion or upon application, give any direction as he deems fit, whether dispensing with the provisions of Rule 9, modifying its application in any way or securing compliance with it.

Custody of exhibits.

12. All original documents delivered to the Court under Rule 9, shall remain in the custody of the Court until the determination of the appeal:

Provided that the Court or Registrar may allow the return of any documents to any party pending hearing of the appeal and subject to such conditions as it/ he may impose.

ORDER 7 — ENTRY OF APPEALS AND POWERS OF THE COURT

1. An appeal is entered in the Court when the Record of Appeal from the Court below has been received in the Registry of the Court within the time prescribed by the Rules or within such other extended time as ordered by the Court.

When an appeal is entered.

2.—(1) After an appeal has been entered and until it has been finally disposed of, the Court shall be seised of the whole of the proceedings as between the parties thereto, and except as may be otherwise provided in this Order, every application therein shall be made to the Court and not to the Court below.

Control of proceedings during pendency of appeal.

(2) The proceedings in any matter before the Court below or any Tribunal shall not be stayed in any form to await the outcome of an interlocutory appeal to this Court.

3.—(1) In relation to an appeal, the Court shall have all the powers and duties as to amendment and otherwise of the Court of first instance.

General powers of the Court

S.22 Supreme Court Act.

(2) The Court shall have power to draw inferences of fact and to give any judgment and make any order which ought to have been given or made, and to make such further or other order(s) as the case may require, including any order as to costs.

Inference of fact.

(3) The Court shall have powers to make orders by way of injunctions or the appointment of a Receiver or Manager, and such other necessary orders for the protection of property or person, pending the determination of an appeal to it even though no application for such an order was made in the Court below, upon the fulfilment of the following conditions to the satisfaction of the Court —

(a) an undertaking to diligently prosecute the appeal is given by the Applicant;

(b) in appeals relating to monetary judgments, a bond, guarantee or other like instrument from a reliable financial institution, in such sum not exceeding the judgment sum, as the Court may direct, as security for the judgment sum or such sum, as the Court may determine, deposited into an interest yielding account in the name of the Chief Registrar or Deputy Chief Registrar of the Court; and

(c) in appeals relating to land, an undertaking to pay damages if the appeal is unsuccessful.

(4) Where an Applicant has filed an application for stay of execution and the application is accompanied by prima facie evidence of the satisfaction of the conditions under sub-rule (3)(a), (b) and/or (c) above, no steps shall be taken to enforce the judgment appealed against, pending the determination of the application for stay of execution by the Court.

Powers not limited by interlocutory Order.

(5) The powers of the Court in respect of an appeal shall not be restricted by reason of any interlocutory order from which there has been no appeal.

Powers not limited by notice of appeal.

(6) The powers of the Court under the foregoing provisions of this Rule may be exercised notwithstanding that no Notice of Appeal has been given in respect of any particular party to the proceedings in the Court, or that any ground for allowing the appeal or affirming or varying the decision of that Court is not specified in such a notice; and the Court may make any order, on such terms as the Court thinks just, to ensure the determination on the merit of the real question in controversy between the parties.

(7) The Court may, in special circumstances, order that such security shall be given for the costs of an appeal as may be just.

Impounded documents.

(8) Documents impounded by order of the Court shall not be delivered out of the custody of the Court except in compliance with an order of the Court:

Provided that where the Attorney-General of the Federation or of a State or the Director of Public Prosecutions of the Federation or of a State makes a written request in that behalf, documents so impounded shall be delivered into his custody.

Inspection of impounded documents.

(9) Documents impounded by order of the Court, while in the custody of the Court, shall not be inspected except by a person authorized to do so by an order of the Court.

Further evidence.

4.—(1) The Court shall have power to receive further evidence on questions of fact, either by oral examination in Court, by affidavit, or by deposition taken before an Examiner or Commissioner as the Court may direct, but, in the case of an appeal from a judgment after trial or hearing of any cause or matter on the merits, no such further evidence (other than evidence as to matters which have occurred after the date of the trial or hearing) shall be admitted except on special grounds.

(2) A party who wishes the court to receive the evidence of witnesses (whether they were or were not called at the trial) or to order the production of any document, exhibit or other thing connected with the proceedings in accordance with the provisions of section 33 of the Act, shall apply for leave on motion on notice prior to the date set down for the hearing of the appeal.

(3) The application shall be supported by affidavit of the facts on which the party relies for making it and of the nature of the evidence or the document concerned.

(4) It shall not be necessary for the other party to answer the additional evidence intended to be called but if leave is granted the other party shall be entitled to a reasonable opportunity to give his own evidence in reply if he so wishes.

5. (1) On the hearing of any appeal the Court may, if it deems fit, make any such order as could be made in pursuance of an application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict, finding or judgment of the Court below.

Powers of the Court as to new trial.

(2) The Court shall not be bound to order a new trial on the ground of misdirection, or of the improper admission or rejection of evidence, unless in the opinion of the Court some substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has been thereby occasioned.

(3) A new trial may be ordered on any question without interfering with the finding or decision on any other question, and if it appears to the Court that any such wrong or miscarriage of justice as is mentioned in sub-rule (2) of this Rule affects only part of the matter in controversy or one or only some of the parties, the Court may order a new trial as to the part only, or as to that party or those parties only, and give final judgment as to the remainder.

(4) In any case where the Court has power to order a new trial on the ground that damages awarded by the Court below are excessive or inadequate, the Court may, in lieu of ordering a new trial:

(a) substitute for the sum awarded by the Court below such sum as appears to the Court to be proper.

(b) reduce or increase the sum awarded by the Court below by such amount as appears to the Court to be proper in respect of any distinct head of damages erroneously included in or excluded from the sum so awarded; but except as aforesaid, the Court shall not have power to reduce or increase the damages awarded by the Court below.

(5) A new trial shall not be ordered by reason of the ruling of any judge of the Court below that a document is insufficiently stamped or does not require to be stamped.

6. Except as otherwise stated in this Order, or the context so implies, this Order shall apply to all matters whether civil or criminal.

Application of Order 7.

ORDER 8 — ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
PROCEEDINGS IN THE ORIGINAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURT

Procedure not provided.	1. In the exercise of the original jurisdiction of the Court, where no provision exists in these Rules, the practice and procedure of the Court shall be conducted in substantial conformity with the practice and procedure for the time being observed in the Federal High Court.
Commencement of proceedings.	2.—(1) Except where otherwise expressly provided, all proceedings for the exercise by the Court of its original jurisdiction shall be commenced by application to the Court, filed in accordance with Rule 15 of this Order. (2) Subject to the provisions of any enactment and of these Rules, civil proceedings in the original jurisdiction may begin by filing a statement of claim, originating summons or originating motion as the case may require.
Where statement of claim must be filed.	3. The following proceedings must commence by filing a statement of claim — (a) proceedings in which the facts in issue are disputed or are likely to be disputed; and (b) proceedings in which a claim made by the Plaintiff is based on an allegation of fraud.
Issue of summons.	4. When a statement of claim has been filed, a summons shall be issued to the Defendant to appear and answer the claim.
Forms of summons. Form 9.	5. Every summons shall be signed by the Registrar and sealed with the Seal of the Court and shall be accompanied by a copy of the statement of claim.
Originating summons.	6.—(1) In any proceedings where the Court has original jurisdiction, any party claiming any legal or equitable right and the determination of the question whether he is entitled to the right depending on the construction of the Constitution or of any other enactment may apply for the issue of an originating summons for the determination of such question of construction as to the right claimed for any further or other reliefs. (2) Any party claiming to be interested in any proceedings specified in sub-rule (1) of this Rule under a deed or other written instrument, may apply for the issuance of an originating summons for the determination of any question of construction arising under the instrument and for a declaration of the rights of the person interested and for any further or other reliefs.
Form 10	(3) The application shall be made in Form 10 in the First Schedule to these Rules and shall be supported by such affidavit evidence as the Court may require.

(4) The Respondent shall within thirty (30) days file a counter affidavit to the action.

7. Rule 8 of this Order shall not affect the right of any party seeking a declaratory judgment to institute proceedings by filing a statement of claim under this Order and on an application by originating summons the Court shall not be bound to determine any such questions of construction if in the opinion of the Court it ought not to be determined on originating summons; and in the latter event the Court may on the application of either party or of its own motion direct the parties to file pleadings.

Statement of claim in lieu of originating summons.

8. Where in any enactment, provision is made for obtaining any relief whatsoever by application to the Court and no procedure is prescribed for obtaining such relief in the enactment or under these Rules, the Plaintiff may initiate proceedings for such relief by originating motion.

Originating motion.
Form 11.

9.—(1) A Defendant shall, within a period of fourteen (14) days after service of a summons on him enter appearance by filing in the Registry —

Mode of entering appearance.

(a) a memorandum in writing dated on the day of its delivery, containing the name, address, email and telephone number of the Defendant(s), the Attorney-General of the Federation or the State as the case may be, or the Defendant's Legal Practitioner; and

Form 12.

(b) two duplicates of the memorandum of appearance.

(2) The Registrar shall seal the duplicate copies of the memorandum of appearance with a seal bearing the words "Appearance entered" and showing the date on which they were sealed, and then return them to the person entering the appearance.

(3) The duplicate copies of the memorandum of appearance so sealed shall be evidence that the appearance was entered on the day indicated by the seal.

10. A Defendant shall, on the day on which he entered appearance, give or send written notice of his having entered appearance to the Plaintiff's Legal Practitioner, and a duplicate of the memorandum of appearance so sealed and delivered to the Plaintiff or his Legal Practitioner shall be sufficient notice for the purpose of this Rule.

Notice of entry to plaintiff.

Form 13.

11. Every application for the exercise by the Court of its original jurisdiction, and every memorandum of appearance shall contain a proper address for service to the satisfaction of the Registrar and shall not be received unless it conforms to these Rules.

Address for service.

12. Except the Court otherwise directs, the Defendant shall within forty-two days after service on him of a statement of claim, file his statement of defence.

Statement of defence.

Reply to defence.

13. The Plaintiff may, if he thinks fit file a reply to the statement of defence within fourteen (14) days after the service on him of the statement of defence.

Procedure
interlocutory
applications.

14. An application for an interlocutory order shall be by motion titled in the proceeding in which it is made and shall be supported by an affidavit of the facts on which the applicant will rely and a written address.

Form 14.

Notice of motion.

15. No motion shall be made without previous notice to the parties affected thereby, but the Court, if satisfied that the delay caused by proceedings in the ordinary way would or might entail irreparable mischief or destroy the subject matter of the proceedings or otherwise render any final order in favour of the applicant nugatory, may make any order ex-parte upon such terms as to costs or otherwise, and subject to that undertaking, if any, as the Court may think just and any party affected by such order may within fifteen (15) days of the service of the order upon him apply to set it aside.

notice.

16. Unless the Court gives special leave to the contrary, there must be at least three (3) days between the service of a notice and the day named in the notice for hearing the motion.

Motion
may be dismissed or adjourned
necessary.

17. If on the hearing of a motion, the Court is of the opinion that any person to whom notice has not been given ought to have or to have had such notice, the Court may dismiss the motion or adjourn the hearing thereof, in order that such notice may be given, upon such terms, if any, as the Court may think fit to impose.

Effect of
judgment

18. No action or proceeding shall be open to objection, on the ground that a merely declaratory judgment or order is sought thereby, and the Court may make binding declarations of right whether any consequential relief is or could be claimed or not.

Summons
directions.

19.—(1) The Plaintiff shall within fourteen (14) days after the Defendant has entered appearance take out a summons for directions by the Court.

Forms
15 & 16.

(2) The Court may determine all matters pertaining to the summons in chambers or in open Court and shall, on the hearing of the summons, give such directions with respect to proceedings, interrogatories, the admission of documents and facts, the discovery, inspection and production of documents and such other interlocutory matters as the Court may consider expedient for the just and expeditious determination of the case.

ORDER 9 — CASE STATED

|--|--|
| 1. The parties to proceedings commenced by statement of claim, originating summons or originating motion may at any stage concur in stating the question of law arising in the proceeding in the form of a case stated for the opinion of the Court. | Stating questions of law
Form 17. |
| 2. The case stated shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall concisely state such facts and documents as are necessary to enable the Court to decide the questions raised by the case stated. | Contents of case stated. |
| 3. Upon the argument of the case, the Court and the parties may refer to the whole contents of the documents stated. | Reference to documents. |
| 4. The Court may draw from the facts and documents stated, any inference, whether of fact or law, which might have been drawn from them if proved at a trial. | Inference from facts and documents. |
| 5. No facts or documents other than those stated in the case shall be referred to upon the argument save with the consent of all parties. | Argument confined to facts in case stated. |
| 6. A case stated concurred in by the parties to a proceeding shall be signed by the parties or their Legal Practitioners and filed with the Registrar. | Signing and filing of case stated. |
| 7. The parties to a case stated may, if they think fit, enter into an agreement in writing that upon the determination by the Court of the question or questions of law raised in the case stated, judgment shall be entered by the Court to any effect within its jurisdiction and with or without costs, and such agreement shall be filed with the Registrar. | Written agreement of parties. |
| 8. Likewise, the parties may, in the presence of the Court, either themselves or by any Legal Practitioner representing them verbally make an agreement as to the judgment to be entered, upon the determination by the Court of the question of law raised in the case stated. | Oral agreement before Court. |
| 9. Where no such agreement is made, the proceedings in the cause shall be resumed, but the questions of law decided in the case stated shall not be re-opened in the Court and the application shall proceed to its final determination upon the decision upon the law recorded after the hearing of the case stated. | Procedure in absence of agreement. | appeal.

8.—(1) A Respondent may, without leave, include argument in respect of a cross-appeal in his brief for the main appeal and the cross-appeal.

(2) Within thirty (30) days of service of the Cross-Appellant's brief in the cross-appeal on the Appellant, the Appellant shall file a Cross-Respondent's brief.

(3) The Cross Appellant may, if necessary, within fourteen (14) days of the service on him of the Cross-Respondents' brief file and serve or cause to be served on the Cross-Respondent a reply brief which shall deal with all new points and points of preliminary objection or any challenge to the cross-appeal raised and argued in the Cross-Respondent's brief.

(4) All briefs under this Rule shall conform with Rules 3(2), 6(3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) of this Order.

Consequence
failure to file brief.

9.—(1) Where the Appellant has failed to file a brief within the period prescribed by this Order and other period of time within which to file the Brief, the Court may upon the Registrar's certificate to that effect or upon the application of the Respondent, proceed to dismiss the appeal in chambers without hearing argument.

(2) Where the appellant has filed a Notice of Withdrawal of his appeal, the Court may proceed to dismiss the appeal in chambers without hearing argument notwithstanding that briefs have been filed in the appeal.

10.—(1) As early as possible before the date set down for the hearing of the appeal and in any event, not later than one week before such date, the party who has filed a brief or the Legal Practitioner representing him shall forward to the Registrar in charge of litigation a list of the law reports, text books and other authorities which Counsel intend to cite at the hearing of the appeal.

(2) The provisions of sub-rule (1) of this Rule shall not apply to a party who has included in his brief the list mentioned in the sub-rule, but such a party may, if he so desires, submit a supplementary list within the prescribed time.

11.—(1) Oral argument may, at the discretion of the Court, be allowed at the hearing of the appeal to emphasize and clarify the written argument appearing in the briefs already filed in Court.

(2) When there is a cross-appeal, the appeal and such cross-appeal shall be argued together as one case and within the time allotted for one case and the Court may, having regard to the nature of the appeal, inform the parties which one is to open and close the argument.

(3) Unless otherwise directed, fifteen (15) minutes on each side may be allowed for oral argument.

(4) Save with leave of the Court, no oral argument may be heard in support of any argument not raised in the brief or on behalf of any party for whom no brief has been filed.

(5) When an appeal is called and no party or any Legal Practitioner appearing for him appears to present oral argument, but briefs have been filed by all the parties concerned in the appeal, the appeal will be treated as having been argued and may be considered as such.

(6) When an appeal is called, and it is discovered that a brief has been filed for only one of the parties and neither of the parties concerned nor their Legal Practitioners appear to present oral argument, the appeal shall be regarded as having been argued on that brief.

12. The Court may, where it considers the circumstances of an appeal to be exceptional, or that the hearing of an appeal must be accelerated in the interest of justice, waive compliance with the provisions of this Order in so far as they relate to the preparation and filing of brief of argument, either wholly or in part, or reduce the time limit specified in the Order, to such extent as the Court may deem reasonable in the circumstances of the case.

Power of Court to accelerate hearing in exceptional circumstances.

13. Notwithstanding the provisions of Order 13 Rules 5, 7, and 8 and Order 5 Rule 1 of these Rules, the computation of time to:
